

O. W. JOHNSTON Hardware and Furniture.

No. 16 East Side Square.

MERIT IS THE TRADE MARK OF SUCCESS.

VALUE IS THE ONLY TRUE TEST OF CAPABILITY.

Goods Rightly Bought are Half Sold.

The Americans are called "The Rocking Chair people" That's all right; nothing knocks out that tired feeling like a good comfortable Rocking Chair. We have some Beauties. Full of comfort and restfulness. Full line of Furniture, Stoves, Hardware and Tinware. Call on us, we would be pleased to show you through.

No. 16 East Side Square.
Marshall, Missouri.

O. W. JOHNSTON.

LOCAL NEWS.

Miss Linnie Montague has returned from Montana, where she spent a pleasant summer.

Mrs. Blanche Seaton, of Indianapolis, will visit her sister, Mrs. Donchou some time in the near future.

Misses Lottie Armentrout and May Hupp left Saturday for Mexico, where they will attend Hardin College.

D. C. Morris, of Georgetown, Ky., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lee P. Viley, left Saturday for his home.

Mrs. Minnie Barnett and children and Mrs. J. W. Goodwin returned last week from Colorado, where they spent the summer.

Mrs. R. E. L. Smith returned Friday night from Alma, where she spent some three weeks with her parents, J. W. Goodwin and wife.

Mrs. J. L. Woodbridge returned Saturday from Kansas City and reports her brother-in-law, Mr. L. F. Hudson, who has typhoid fever, better.

Miss Floy Tucker entertained a limited number of friends at dinner on Friday; they were Misses Fannie and Flora McClure, Pearl Harvey and Nell Orear.

Miss Pearl Winn, of Mayview, was the guest Saturday and Sunday of Miss Maude Colvert. Miss Winn was enroute to Fairville, where she has charge of the school.

Mrs. P. H. Franklin entertained the following persons at dinner on Friday complimentary to Rev. A. A. McGeechy and wife: Dr. and Mrs. L. P. Howen and daughter Lillian, of Monroeville, La., and Rev. W. R. Doherty.

Miss Gertrude Chandler, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Will Sharp has returned to Kansas City.

Messrs. J. H. and G. M. Deal left Friday for Bloomington, Ill., where the Deal family will have a reunion at Forest Park.

Miss Helen Fisher, who has been making a visit at Fontine, will return this week, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Snoddy, who will make a visit.

Miss Louise Bryant, who is one of Marshall's most charming and popular young ladies, is visiting the family of Col. J. B. Burress, Columbia Herald.

Chas. Gorrell at the recent Benedict sale, purchased a mule colt for $70, which he claims is the best in the county. He will be shown at the Street Fair.

Mrs. Laura Estill left last week for New York City, where she will visit her son Dan, who is manager of the Embalming Department of the Meritt Burial Establishment.

Miss Rena Hawkins, of Fairville, came in Monday. She was enroute to Lexington, where she will attend school. She was the guest of the Misses Hupp while in the city.

Miss Alice Cordell left Monday for Kansas City where she will teach in the public schools. She was accompanied by her brother Hardeman, who will attend the Manual Training School.

W. E. Vawter, traveling for the Eddy & Eddy Sales House, of Rochester, New York, has been made manager of the house. And in the future he will sell goods to the large cities of the South only.

Miss Ruthmacher, of St. Louis, will arrive this week and take charge of the tanning department of Miss Angie Thompson's Millinery Establishment.

W. W. Barks and wife have returned from their summer's outing and will occupy the same house on Odell Ave., where they will be at home to their friends.

Misses Elizabeth Whittaker and Julia Watts arrived Friday from the East, where the former took a course of study at the Chicago University. They are at Ming's Hotel for the present.

Mrs. Len Murrell and little daughter Sarah, of Napton, were guests Sunday of Miss Ethylene Jackson; they spent several days last week with Dr. and Mrs. Martin and left Tuesday for Napton.

Miss Mattie Brown, who is well-known to Marshall society people, as the best trimmer ever in the city, will be found at Misses Mick & Cohenour's where she will be glad to see her old customers and many new ones.

Mr. F. A. Benedick, through the columns of this paper, wishes to thank his friends for their patronage at his sale, and promises at the next one to secure one of Rob't Wright's big 1800 lb steers with which to feed the crowd.

Mrs. J. B. Redmond, of Marshall, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lee Holladay, left Wednesday for Madison to visit relatives. She returns Saturday afternoon to spend a few more days here ere returning home.—Fayette Advertiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Staley left Thursday for Kansas City, which will be their home in the future. They are guests for some days of L. M. Merkins and wife before leaving.

Rev. W. R. Doherty preached at 2 P. M. on Sunday at Sun Chapel and preached for his own congregation at night. The pulpit was filled in the morning by Dr. L. S. Bowen.

Miss Beth Wisdom, of Mexico, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Clara Wisdom. Miss Wisdom has accepted a position as musical instructor at the college at Paris, Arkansas, and left for that place Sunday evening.

Miss Grace Lowe, a trained nurse of this city, who was three years at the hospital at Battle Creek, Michigan, has been engaged to nurse Miss Agnes Langan, who is quite sick with typhoid fever at the home of Mrs. Wm. Pate on East North St.

NOTICE.

The Saline Co Telephone Co. guarantees first-class service, a large list of subscribers and reasonable rates. Patronize a home company that made it possible for you to secure these things.

Put a
Telephone in Your Home.

Only 75c per Month.

Telephone No. 25 for Particulars.

MISSOURI & KANSAS TELEPHONE CO.
M. M. McFarland, Manager.